

The PONTES office Solivan in Warsaw strengthens its PE&VC competence

July 2018

PONTES: the CEE lawyers | Solivan, Warsaw

The PONTES office Solivan in Warsaw (Poland) strengthens its team by PE&VC expert Dorota Przelaskowska, a legal counsel (radca prawny) with 20 years professional experience.

In her work, Dorota mainly deals with the company law issues, commercial law, private equity and venture capital transactions and competition protection law issues. Her professional experience also includes advising on banking law, labour law and real estate matters.

She advises many regional private equity funds like, e.g. Innova Capital and professional investors (Polish and foreign) in a number of M&A transactions involving companies operating in various economic sectors (including, banking and finance, pharmaceuticals, healthcare, mining industry, energy, telecommunications, retail and wholesale trade and aerospace). She has significant experience in the corporate law, in particular with respect to the operation of capital companies. She participated in a number of due diligence reviews of entrepreneurs gaining practical knowledge of enterprises' operation.

Dorota advises her clients on the domestic and European merger control rules and successfully represented clients in merger clearance proceedings related to consolidation of businesses. She provides advice on other aspects of antitrust law, especially with respect to the compliance of business activity with the broadly understood competition and consumer protection law.

Dorota Przelaskowska started her professional career in 1998 and has gained professional experience at the international law firms such as Hunton & Williams, Dewey & LeBoeuf and Greenberg Traurig. She is a member of the Competition Law Association.

Solivan Partner Christian Schnell quotes: "Dorota joining our team is an important step forward to strengthen our PE&VC practice. We expect Dorota to closely cooperate with the PONTES office JSK in Prague and its practice group head Tomas Dolezil to position PONTES for PE&VC transactions in the region."
