<sup>1</sup>This overview represents an example of a concentration of two entities. In case of an acquisition, A is a target and B is the buyer. This overview should be used for the purpose of conducting a preliminary jurisdictional analysis only and should be consulted with a lawyer from the respective jurisdiction. Please note that some jurisdictions have sector-specific rules in addition to the general filing requirements and in some cases other facts also have to be considered.

<sup>4</sup>According to Section (4) 24. § of Act No. LVII of 1996 on the Prohibition of Unfair and Restrictive Market Practices, the proposed concentration will also be subject to an obligatory notification, if it is not obviously clear that the merger is not substantially restricting the competition, AND the NET turnover of the undertakings is altogether over HUF 5 bn.

<sup>6</sup>As of November 1, 2017 a new set of thresholds (under point 2) extends the existing provisions so that a merger notification will be required if the thresholds under point 1 above are not met, but the thresholds under point 2 are met.

<sup>7</sup>The consideration entails target value, including purchase price and assumed debt, if any.
